

GENERAL ATOMICS MACHINING ENCLAVE

Newly constructed 4,000 sq ft of manufacturing space

A state-of-the-art, one-stop-shop facility designed to meet the needs of our government partners

Located in San Diego, California, highlights of this new Machining Enclave include:

CAPABILITIES

- Precision Milling
- Precision Turning
- CMM Metrology (touch and optical)
- 18" work envelope
- Vacuum work holding
- Heat Treatment Furnace
- Lapping
- Video Teleconferencing and Phone
- Experienced, cleared staff
- Assembly

EQUIPMENT

- Roku Roku Mill 3-axis
- Okuma M460 Mill 5-axis
- Okuma LB3000 Lathe
- Hardinge T51 Lathe
- Hexagon Leitz Touch Probe CMM
- AB Tech Runout Probe
- Hexagon Optiv Optical CMM
- Additive Manufacturing

As a government contract holder, General Atomics strictly adheres to Government Orders and Regulations, meeting all contractual requirements. We utilize the latest manufacturing equipment to guarantee efficiency and precision in every project we undertake.

General Atomics holds certifications in ISO9001:2015 and additional quality policies, demonstrating our commitment to excellence in all aspects of our operations.

For inquiries, please contact:

Todd Fields, Senior Director of Business Development

Todd.Fields@ga.com | 858-423-1466 | www.ga.com/energy-group